Principal's Message

North Scott High School has completed its first four years. This year's graduating class started in our new building as freshman in 1958. They are the first class to have attended school for twelve years within in the limits of the North Scott School District. The class of 1962 has had many opportunities not available to previous groups. The question that each future graduate must answer is, "Have I taken full advantage of the opportunities provided for me, and thus prepared myself for a position in an adult world?"

The Graduating Class of 1962 has many fond memories of the past years here at North Scott. We Seniors were very fortunate to be the first graduating class of North Scott to complete the first full four years in high school.

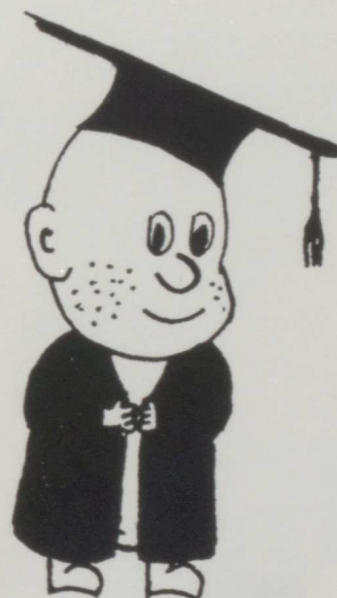

Many members of the Senior class have held offices during the year. The Senior class officers were: Mary Hoffmann, President; Paul Kirby, Vice-President; Nancy Miller, Secretary; Les Koch, Treasurer. The Seniors on the previous pages have also held offices this past year in Student Council: Vicki Frye, President; Trudy Lantau, Vice-President; and Shirley Hansen, Secretary. The other Senior class members in Student Council were Bonnie Meinert and Maureen Thede.

GARRY WULF

During the past years our class has sponsored many activities such as the Prom, Homecoming, Bachelor Capture, Senior Picnic, and Graduation. The people who helped us greatly in our many activities were our class sponsors. Their help was needed and very much appreciated.

We Seniors will always remember the important role we have played in making our school what it is.

"The Mousetrap," North Scott's first all-school play for this year was presented November 17 and 18.

This is one of the first times that this play, by Agatha Christie, has been presented in any high school in the United States because it was just released. It is now playing in London for the ninth consecutive year which makes it the longest running play in history.

The mystery takes place in an English Inn during the winter season. The play opens with the previous murder of a woman in the town and there is fear that the murderer will strike again. In Act I six people get stranded at the Inn due to a violent snow storm that takes place on stage. The climax of the first act is a terrifying on-stage murder.

The culprit attempts his second murder.

Mollie is terrified as she finds the lifeless body of Mrs. Boyle.

Crowded Midway

And the band played on....

Active policemen captured many vagrants and kept the jail filled.

Want to get made up?

Was the game rigged?

The Glory
That Was Greece

Looks of awe were seen as couples entered through the draped doorway.

"Shall we dance?"

"I'd be delighted."

The 1962 junior-senior prom was presented in splendor on the night of April 28. The enchanting music of Gene McDuff was enjoyed from 8:30 to 12:30 p.m. The gym was transformed into a Grecian temple, decorated with enormous pillars, a spouting fountain, and a shimmering curtain of translucent material.

An unhappy escort sullenly watches while his date's program is quickly filled.

A colored fountain was the main center of attraction.

These seniors smile happily as they pose to have their pictures taken.

After a hard nights work,
North Scott's Nero feasts.

The candid camera caught an informal moment.

The swinging music kept the dance floor crowded through the evening.

In Memoriam

Edward William Kelly was a young man just starting his life's work, when death struck him down, a victim of our automobile age.

Edward Kelly was a good friend, and a fine colleague. He had an excellent reputation among his friends and the student body for his industrious and conscientious application to whatever task might be given him. He was liked, but what is more important he was respected, by his students. His friends liked him for his ever present smile and good humor.

Edward Kelly was doing a fine job in his chosen profession. He was a credit to the profession he had joined. We will all miss him.
